WHEREAS, the Parties have decided to collaborate for mutual benefit in the business of Corporate IT Training.

Both the Parties acknowledge that this Agreement does not create a partnership or joint venture between them and is exclusively a contract for services. The parties also acknowledge that this Agreement is non-exclusive and that either Party will be free, during and after the Term, to engage or contract with other third parties for the provision of similar Services.

This Master Services Agreement(MSA) sets forth the following terms and conditions –

Duration:

This agreement is effective upon the day and date signed by both the parties. This MSA shall remain in effect for a period of two years. Further renewal can be executed based on mutual consent.

RJP will solicit the Trainer whenever there is a Training requirement, and the Trainer should demonstrate their expertise in the specified domain to the satisfaction of RJP and their clients.

Once the Trainer gets confirmed, RJP will issue a PO with details such as dates & timing, location, pricing etc. If, for any reason, the training dates need to be revised to accommodate the clients, the Trainer will cooperate with RJP to establish mutually convenient dates.

If RJP's requirement warrants customization, the Trainer shall provide customized content as expected. Trainer must also provide necessary inputs to setup remote labs in RJP's data centre. Unless agreed otherwise, all learning aids and materials prepared by the Trainer pertaining to training programmes must be shared only through RJP's Learning Management System to the clients / trainees.

The Trainer should deliver the training on behalf of RJP and always act as a representative of RJP. Trainer should not solicit business in their personal capacity with RJP's clients / trainees. The Trainer shall be responsible for meeting all training objectives including hands-on labs. The Trainer shall practice high standards and ensure that feedback remains above 80% positive on all parameters outlined by the client.

Completion of Services

The Training service shall be deemed as complete once the below are satisfied.

1. The training curriculum has been delivered in its entirety
2. All assignments/assessments have been completed by the trainees and the evaluations completed by the Trainer
3. There are no outstanding commitments that were agreed by RJP and the Trainer during the initial agreement

Payment Terms

Rates & payment terms shall be specified in the respective PO's for individual Training services. The Trainer shall send the Invoice to RJP upon successful completion of the service.

Business Ethics

Throughout the duration of this agreement, and specifically during the delivery of Training services to clients, the Trainer must maintain high business ethics & professional conduct in line with corporate Code of Conduct & Ethics. The Trainer shall avoid real or apparent impropriety, and Solicitation of any kind.

Confidentiality. The parties agree to the following:

- (a) By virtue of this Agreement, the parties may have access to information that is confidential to one another and their clients ("Confidential Information"). Confidential Information shall include all information explicitly marked or identified as confidential, and any other information which would reasonably be understood to be confidential such as each party's client details, employee details, business and strategy information, contact information, vendor information, pricing, Training materials etc.
- (b) A party's Confidential Information shall not include information which (i) is or becomes a part of the public domain through no act or omission of the other party; (ii) was in the other party's lawful possession prior to the disclosure and had not been obtained by the other party either directly or indirectly from the party; (iii) is lawfully disclosed to the other party by a third party without restriction on disclosure, external to this MSA; or (iv) is independently developed by the other party without breach of the MSA.
- (c) The parties agree to hold each other's Confidential Information in confidence throughout the entire term of this MSA. The parties agree not to make each other's Confidential Information available in any form to any third party or to use each other's Confidential Information for any purpose other than the implementation of this MSA.

(d) If in order to fulfil the purposes of this MSA it is necessary for the party receiving Confidential Information to copy all or a portion of the Confidential Information of the disclosing party, the receiving party may do so for the said purposes and no other purpose. Such confidential information shall be returned to the disclosing party in its entirety and in the same state as originally received, without any copies or subsets being retained. The disclosing party shall confirm in writing, of satisfactory return of the information. In case of training services to each party's clients, confidential information shall be returned or destroyed within one week of completion of the service.

(e) Data Protection and Security

RJP is bound by Data Protection agreement with their multinational clients. Accordingly, RJP is required to contractually bind their sub-processors for compliance of the same. Hence, the Trainer shall not use employee data and other confidential data related to Clients.

In case of any breach by the trainer, the Trainer shall hold RJP harmless and reimburse RJP for all applicable legal costs and any related losses, penalties and expenses incurred.

(e) Upon termination of this agreement, each party shall immediately return the Confidential Information of the other party or shall certify in writing, duly signed by its authorized representative, that the Confidential Information of the other party has been destroyed. Both parties shall ensure that non-material confidentiality (such as knowledge of companies, strategies, plans etc) will survive the expiry of this MSA.

Non-Circumvention

During the term of this Agreement and for two (2) years thereafter, neither party shall directly engage in business with or solicit business from the clients of the other party. Either party or its representatives shall also not, without the prior written consent of the other party, hire, seek to hire, attempt to induce, or cooperate with any other firm in an attempt to hire or induce any employee or representative to leave the employment or representation of the other party.

Mutual Indemnity:

Except to the extent paid in settlement from any applicable insurance policies, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, each Party agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the other Party, and its respective directors, shareholders, affiliates, officers, agents, employees, and permitted successors and assigns against any and all claims, losses, damages, liabilities, penalties, punitive damages, expenses, reasonable legal fees and costs of any kind or amount whatsoever, which result from or arise out of any act or omission of the indemnifying party, its respective directors, shareholders, affiliates, officers, agents, employees, and permitted successors and assigns that occurs in connection with this Agreement. This indemnification will survive the termination of this Agreement.

Dispute resolution:

Should a dispute occur, the Parties shall do their utmost to settle it as promptly and amicably as possible.

Termination:

This Agreement can be terminated, without cause, by either party upon 30 days' written notice, whereas the notice shall be delivered by electronic mail or by certified mail. The parties shall ensure the completion of any services before termination.

Force Majeure

Neither party shall be held responsible for any delay or failure in performance of any part of this Agreement to the extent such delay or failure is caused by fire, flood, explosion, war, strike, embargo, government requirement, civil or military authority, act of God, or other similar causes beyond its control and without the fault or negligence of the delayed or non-performing party or its subcontractors ("force majeure event")
